

To participate, complete the application

(including the application form, essay, and teacher agreement letter)

by April 15, 2016

Send application packets to:

Dr. Kathleen Alley

SSILTT 2016

310 Allen Hall, Box 9705

Mississippi State, MS 39762

Application paperwork may also be faxed to:

662-325-7857

attn. Dr. Kathleen Alley

The application must be signed by you, but you do not need a school administrator's signature as this is work completed during your summer vacation.

Email any questions to:

kalley@colled.msstate.edu

If you need informational resources to support teaching the Mississippi College and Career Readiness Standards, then SSILTT 2016 is the workshop for you!

CURRICULUM | INSTRUCTION | SPECIAL EDUCATION

2016 SSILTT WORKSHOP

Science and Social Studies
Integrated With Literacy and Technology for Teachers

Mississippi State University
College of Education

CURRICULUM | INSTRUCTION | SPECIAL EDUCATION

SSILTT 2016 is a 4-week summer institute that will provide teachers grades 6-8 with strategies and resources for integrating literacy and technology into science and social studies instruction.

Participants in SSILTT 2016 will receive:

- Resources and methods for teaching students content area literacy, including:
 - Comprehension
 - Vocabulary
 - Writing in the content areas
 - Inquiry based learning
- Technology resources for teaching science and social studies:
 - Web 2.0 tools to support instruction
 - How to teach the digital native
- Ways to increase rigor and relevance
- Understanding MS College and Career Readiness Standards implementation
- $100.00 per day for 22 days
- Approximately $500 worth of informational books for the classroom and CCR professional resources.

Requirements for SSILTT 2016

Participants must:

- Attend the 4-week workshop, 8:30am to 4:30pm, June 1-28, 2016
- Remain in the teaching profession in the 2016-2017 school year
- Be in a literacy, science, or social studies classroom
- Help conduct professional development for colleagues during the 2016-2017 school year pertaining to SSILTT content
- Participate in evaluation of program and collaborate with the project directors on research

Program Facilitators:

Kathleen Alley
Manya Chappell
Stephanie Bennett
Nicole Miller
Kenneth Anthony