CLRP Standards

Culturally Linguistically Responsive Pedagogy (CLRP) Practices

Indicator	Description
1.0 Multicultural Awareness
CLRP 1.1	Educate students regarding the culture of others while emphasizing sensitivity and respect, commonalities, differences
2.0 Critical Thinking
CLRP 2.1	Teach explicit strategies
CLRP 2.2	Apply logic to new or unfamiliar ideas and concepts
3.0 Social/Political Awareness
CLRP 3.1	Assists students to become socially and politically conscious
4.0 Problem Solving
CLRP 4.1	Create opportunities for students to investigate
CLRP 4.2	Allow students to formulate questions and develop solutions
5.0 Cultural, Linguistic, and Racial Identity
CLRP 5.1	Implement educational practices that connect to and reflect: Culture, Language, Race, Values, Customs, Daily lives, and Beliefs
6.0 Child/Youth Centered
CLRP 6.1	Develop CR learning opportunities and outcomes focused on student-generated ideas, values, and preferences
7.0 Collaboration
CLRP 7.1	Motivate teamwork and resource sharing among: Students, Teachers, Across teachers, school, and home
8.0 Engagement
CLRP 8.1	Motivate students to become engaged, responsive, and active learners
9.0 Instructional Scaffolding
CLRP 9.1	Control for task difficulty

CLRP 9.2	Promote a deeper level of understanding using students' contributions and linguistic backgrounds
10.0 Modeling
CLRP 10.1	Exemplify learning outcomes of CR teaching, Strategy use, Content learning, Metacognitive/critical thinking, Interest and respect for values of culturally responsive teaching/learning
11.0 Materials
CLRP 11.1	Integrate research-developed and/or teacher developed/selected materials and resources that validate and consider students' cultural, linguistic, and racial identity
12.0 Responsive Feedback
CLRP 12.1	Provide critical, ongoing and immediate feedback regarding students' responses and participation
13.0 Assessments
CLRP 13.1	Select formal (standardized) and informal assessments that validate and consider students' linguistic and cultural identity
14.0 High Expectations
CLRP 14.1	Challenge students to strive for excellence and reach levels of expectations and standards