

COUNTED OUT:

Film Screening & Community Conversation

Join us for a screening of "Counted Out," refreshments and an engaging discussion with special guest Maisha Moses.

Feb. 16, 4 p.m.
Needmore Community Center
515 Spring Street, Starkville, MS

Maisha Moses is the executive director of The Young People's Project and has worked with the organization and The Algebra Project since 1991. Her experience includes direct work with students and teachers, program organizing, and organizational leadership. She holds a master's degree in mathematics and gets her love of math from her father, Bob Moses, civil rights organizer and educator.

Sponsored by the Mississippi Council of Teachers of Mathematics (MCTM), Mississippi Association of Mathematics Teacher Educators (MAMTE), Mathematical Association of America (MAA) and MSU's Department of Teacher Education and Leadership

Mississippi State University is an equal opportunity institution.

DEPARTMENT OF TEACHER
EDUCATION AND LEADERSHIP