Special Note 1: Failure to attend class without notifying the teacher in advance or presenting a doctor's excuse will result in an "F" [0] as a daily grade. I will excuse up to two absences, all other absences, excused or otherwise will not be excused and will receive a daily grade of "F" [0] for the absence. Exception: if university-related responsibilities cause you to miss more than 2 classes, I will excuse the absences [example—if you are part of the pep band, the basketball teams play in championship games and you are required to attend the games]

Special Note 2: Each student is expected to come to class with his/her own textbook, folder or notebook, pencil, and any previously assigned handouts. Students are allowed two class periods to "forget" textbooks without penalty. Beginning with the third class period a textbook is "forgotten," students will receive an "F" as a daily grade.

Special Note 3: Students are expected to be on time for each class. Students will be allowed two class periods for tardiness without penalty. Beginning with the third class period, students' daily grades will be lowered by one letter. Students who are consistently tardy (six class periods or more) will receive an "F" as a daily grade. If you have a problem getting to class on time because you have a class just before this one in a remote part of campus, let me know immediately!

40% Three scheduled exams. (Scale: A = 90% - 100%; B = 80% - 89%; C = 70% - 79%; D = 60% - 69%; F = 59% and below)

1. All regular exams are scheduled on class meeting days.
2. All exams are weighted equally because the nature of skill development is comprehensive
3. Exam contents consist of a demonstration of skills and repertoire or special projects (i.e. the multi-tracking project) covered in classes prior to a given exam
4. Consult the class calendar for specific exam days.
5. All exams are held one-on-one with the instructor in the instructor's office.
6. Students who are unable to attend an exam at the scheduled time must notify the instructor via e-mail or phone on the day of the exam. If a student fails to show up for an exam or has not notified the instructor regarding an exam absence by the next regular class meeting, the student will receive an automatic "F" for the exam.
7. Make-up exams for excused absences will be given during finals week, the day and time of which are agreed upon by instructor and student.
