

Student Appeals for Website

Mississippi State University has numerous offices that can assist students with concerns related to academic progress. The Dean of Students' Office can assist students who have been found responsible for academic misconduct, have received parking tickets, or have been referred due student misconduct. Information related to each of these can be found here:

<https://www.students.msstate.edu/>.

The Financial Aid Office can assist with financial aid appeals (<https://www.sfa.msstate.edu/satisfactory-academic-progress/>), while the Office of the Provost and Executive Vice President can assist with grade appeals (<https://www.provost.msstate.edu/fsr/students/gradeappeal/>) .

For academic misconduct, students may request an appeal in writing within five (5) business days after notification of the original hearing panel's decision. Information regarding filing this appeal can be found here: <https://www.honorcode.msstate.edu/resources/filing-appeal>

For parking tickets, the appeals process can be found here:

<https://www.students.msstate.edu/ticket-appeals/>

For student misconduct, the code of student conduct, explanation of sanctions, and the appeal process can be found here: <https://www.students.msstate.edu/student-conduct/>

If a student fails to meet both the quantitative and qualitative standards for Satisfactory Academic Progress for financial aid, students can file an appeal to request that their aid be reinstated. Information regarding this process can be found here:
